DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

May 11, 1951

Mr. Walter R. Wolf, Deputy Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
223 Administration Building,
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Wolf:

STATINTL

The two attachments are self-explanatory. Permit me to explain that [REDACTED] will not be easily obtained, by which I certainly do not mean to imply that he would "play hard to get". He is motivated, as you, Tom Cabot, and I are exclusively by a sense of emergency and a desire to be of service, but his general standing and maturity is such that nothing but a genuinely high-level position could attract him. If you want a personal check, Allan Dulles' partner, Eustace Seligman, knows him well and has sat on the Board of Allied Stores with him for a number of years. I think that a call from you, Bill Jackson, or Allan Dulles is indicated if you are seriously interested in him. In any event, I am sure you will want to correct the inadvertent slip which has occurred.

With kind regards.

Sincerely yours,

Harold F. Linder,
Deputy Assistant Secretary
for Economic Affairs
